Is a Vegetable Preparation which is the only cure remedy in the world for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, and is equally effective in all other diseases of the Kidney, Liver and Urinary Organs, and disorders caused by these.

Two compounds: For the cure of Diabetes call for Safe Diabetes Cure, and for the cure of Bright's and the other diseases call for Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. Price, $2.00 a Bottle.

TESTIMONIALS.

The Rev. J. E. RANKIN, D.D., of Washington, D. C., certifies that he has known of several "permanent cures of diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs" by the use of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and adds "I do not doubt that it has genuine virtue." D. W. BARTINE, M.D., D.D., of East Orange, N. J., certifies that it cured him of Bright's Disease in two weeks. Rev. C. A. HARVEY, D.D., Secretary of Howard University, certifies: "I am convinced that no remedy heretofore used or described can be held for one moment in comparison with this." E. W. NEFF, 102 Bagg Street, Detroit, Mich., certifies that it completely cured him of a chronic liver complaint after numerous other remedies had failed. These are abbreviated sample testimonials.

Prof. GREEN, an eminent allopathic physician of the South, recommended in the Medical Record that all physicians administer this remedy for Kidney Diseases in preference to any thing else. R. CAULKINS, M.D., of Rochester, N.Y., says he would prescribe the remedy to all whose Kidneys and Livers are badly affected. The Richmond and Louisville Medical Journal said it had done more for the cure of Kidney Diseases than any other remedy.

☞ Warner's Safe Bitters, Safe Tonic, Safe Pills and Safe Nervine are also superior remedies, unequalled in their respective fields of disease.

Warner's Safe Remedies are sold by Druggists and Medicine Dealers generally throughout the country. Send for Pamphlet and Testimonials.

STOCKS AND MINES.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE

QUESNELLE QUARTZ MINING COMPANY (LIMITED.)

THE DIRECTORS OF THE QUESNELLE QUARTZ Mining Company at the end of their term of office submit the following report for your consideration:—

During the mining season of 1879 a shaft was sunk on No. 2 location to a depth of 114 feet from the surface, the size of the shaft being 7 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear. The shaft runs through rock which had to be blasted the entire distance; it has been thoroughly timbered throughout and is secure and commodious. At 100 ft. from the surface a cross-drive 5 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear was run. At a distance of 33 ft. from the shaft it cut into a body of quartz, on which a level was run 20 ft. The quartz extracted was found to be much broken and mixed with bedrock, doubtless caused by the movement of the country rock which has apparently broken and disintegrated the vein at that level.

A 5-stamp quartz mill has been purchased and erected, the cost of which was greatly enhanced by the unavoidable expense and difficulty attached to moving heavy machinery for a distance of 30 miles through a rough country where no roads or trails existed.

Forty tons of quartz were worked in the mill producing 103 ounces of bullion, which sold for $1256 67.

Good and substantial buildings have been erected over all the works.

The directors are of opinion that it is advisable to sink the shaft at least 200 ft. deeper before running any cross-drifts. To accomplish this it will be necessary to place steam power on the mine; they therefore recommend that the funds of the Company be first devoted to that purpose and that arrangements be made for the purchase of engine and pumps of the requisite capacity and to place them on the ground with as little delay as possible.

The improvements made by the Dominion Government in the Cottonwood Canon will enable boats capable of carrying machinery to reach a point within 9 miles of the mine; a road thence to the mine could be constructed, which would enable machinery to be placed on the ground at a reasonable cost.

The accounts of the Company have been carefully audited; an abstract thereof is herewith given:

		$ 10,346 46

From the foregoing it will be seen that there are debts or liabilities owing by the company.

The property of the company is estimated at $10,346 46, a value that would not exceed the cost of replacing it under favorable circumstances.

Since work was suspended last fall everything at the mine has been under the charge of a caretaker at an expense of $75, the only other expense incurred during the last winter being those necessary for advertising, etc, the secretary having performed the duties of his office without remuneration. Neither the auditors nor directors are or were under pay at any time. JAS. REID, President.

R. J. SKINNER, Secty.

ASSESSMENT NO. II.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT AT A meeting of the Trustees of said Company held on the 30th day of August, 1880, an assessment of One Dollar per share was levied upon the capital stock of said company, payable forthwith to Charles Wilson, Secretary, at the Company's office, Barkerville, B. C. Any stock upon which said assessment shall remain unpaid on 30th day of Sept., 1880, shall be deemed delinquent, and will be duly advertised for sale at Public Auction and, unless payment be made before, will be sold on the 29th day of Oct., 1880, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with costs of advertising and expenses of the sale. Daily Colonist.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCT. 24TH, 1880.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants Exchange, is our authorised Agent in San Francisco.

A DAILY MAIL.

We have repeatedly drawn the attention of the Ottawa members to the importance of the establishment of a daily mail service between this port and Puget Sound. The American authorities have maintained for more than a year a daily service to Port Townsend where the bags for this place are landed and remain piled up awaiting the arrival of the semi-weekly steamer to transport them to Victoria. The distance from Victoria to Port Townsend is 45 miles, and can be accomplished by a smart steamboat in three hours and a-half. The Ottawa government subsidizes the STARR line to make trips twice-a-week between the two ports; and it is understood that a slight proportionate increase in the subsidy would insure connection six days in each week. When the contract with the P. M. S. S. Co. was about to expire we entertained a hope that the mail service by the ocean would be abandoned and a daily service by way of Puget Sound established in its stead. That hope proved delusive; but the low and advantageous terms on which the government secured a renewal of the ocean service by the Pacific Coast S.S. Co.—the rate now paid being only about one-third that paid the former contractors, place it in the power of the Dominion to secure in addition a daily service via the Sound—gaining the two services at a cost less than that lately paid for the ocean service alone. This fact should be brought to the notice of the Dominion government by our members. When we look at the broken character of Victoria's connections—the two days' delay of our passengers, letters and freight on the mainland, and the detention of mails at Port Townsend four days in each week,—we are surprised that active and decided steps were not long ago taken to put an end to both. No man desiring to reach Victoria should have it in his power to say with truth that he was detained a single hour, except by stress of weather, en route. To-day there are three days' accumulation of mail matter at Port Townsend; and there it will lie until to-morrow. The question of the island railway is too precious to be imperilled by tacking to it any other grievance, or we should advocate the consideration of our mail grievances at the public meeting shortly to be convened in this city. It would be wise to allow "every tub to stand on its own bottom;" therefore we leave the daily mail to our Ottawa members in the hope that they will lay the matter immediately before the Dominion Government.

COLLISIONS ON FRASER RIVER.

We have already recorded the fact that two collisions have occurred between steamboats on Fraser river during the past month. In both instances the steamers of the opposing lines crashed into each other. It is impossible to indicate with any degree of certainty, from conflicting accounts, which boat was in the wrong. But it is scarcely necessary to point out the extreme peril in which valuable lives and property have been placed by these alarming incidents. Fraser river is broad enough for the boats of the two lines to keep out of each other's way; and although there may be times when collisions are scarcely avoidable—say when dense fogs prevail—no such excuse can be urged on the occasions to which we now refer. The heartrending scenes consequent upon the Bywell Castle running into the Princess Alice on the Thames, of the Stonington running down the Narragansett on Long Island Sound, and of that dreadful calamity which desolated many homes in this country scarcely five years ago—are too fresh in the public mind to need more than a passing reference. They serve to "point a moral and adorn a tale" which may be profitably committed to heart by Fraser steamboatmen. What has happened elsewhere from the reckless handling of the wheel may happen here from the same cause. Is there not a Dominion officer stationed in the Province whose duty it is to investigate the causes of collisions and steamboat disasters as they take place? If there is, why should he hesitate to set the law in motion until another collision on our most used river may plunge the province in the depths of grief, or until a heavy pecuniary sacrifice shall have been inflicted upon shippers and consignees of freight? We are satisfied from what we have heard that the two most recent events were easily avoidable, and we hope that public sentiment, as well as the law, will be brought to bear so unmistakably upon the offending parties that a repetition will be considered a luxury too expensive to be safely indulged in.

How the Public Landing will Injure Private Property.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST:—Sir,—I was greatly surprised to find that in the Agreement with which Mr. Yates seeks to bind the Municipal Council as a condition to the exchange of the public landing he attempts to injure our adjoining property—the wharf now in the occupation of Mr. Engelhardt—by shutting it out with a sidewalk over which drays cannot pass. If the proposed roadway and landing are to be public, if the taxes taken from the public are to build it and keep it in repair forever, then it should be, and in fact must be, open to the public on even terms. If Mr. Yates' wharf has free access to the road so must all other wharves abutting on it.

But this fair view of the case does not, apparently, suit Mr. Yates, for he attempts to bind the Council to a private special privileged bargain. His Agreement sets forth as follows: "The corporation of the city of Victoria shall at their own cost construct, and subject as hereinafter appearing, at all times keep open and in proper repair a roadway with a pathway on the northerly side thereof, etc., such pathway to abut on lot 202.

"The roadway shall be constructed so as to be easily accessible from the upper basement of the buildings (plans whereof signed by A. B. Gray, agent of the said James Yates, have been prepared by and are now in the possession of John Teague, of Victoria aforesaid, architect, so that a doorway opened in the wall between the said roadway and the lower part of such upper basement will afford convenient access to the floor of such basement for the delivery of goods," etc.

"The aforesaid pathway shall be of width of ten feet at least.

"The said James Yates, his heirs and assigns, and the occupiers aforesaid and their servants and employés, and also all other persons whilst going to or returning from the said wharf, shall be at liberty at all times to pass over the said pathway free of charge.

"A sidewalk four feet in width shall be laid by the said James Yates on the southerly side of said roadway, and no pathway of greater width than four feet shall be constructed on that side of the roadway."

Now, sir, it will be seen by the ratepayers that the corporation for all time to come have to build and keep in repair a roadway to suit the convenience of Mr. Yates and to give free access to his warehouse and wharf. That whilst he takes power to lay down a four-foot pathway to suit himself alongside his own property, he compels the council to lay down a ten-foot side walk along our property, thereby virtually fencing us out from all participation in the advantages of the proposed roadway, to the building of which we contribute our proportion of taxes. And I will here state that I feel certain that if the Mayor had for one moment thought of what he was doing he would not have signed such an unfair and oversided agreement which gives one ratepayer free access to a public roadway and fences another ratepayer out with a broad sidewalk.

If the roadway is public why should Mr. Yates stipulate for the free use of it? and why should there be sidewalks to it of different width? why not treat both sides alike? Let this question stand on its own merits, and let the exchange of landings, if desired, be an exchange pure and simple free from all restrictions and conditions. All that I require is simple justice and not to have my property injured to benefit another person. I look to the voters of Victoria City to do me that justice by voting against the by-law. The by-law which will be submitted to the public vote is framed on the agreement ratified by the Mayor and Mr. Yates from which I have quoted, and any subsequent proposals made by the agent of Mr. Yates, can have no weight unless embodied in a new by-law. This has not been done; the Mayor and Council have not adopted the second proposal, and the voters should take care that they are not deceived. What they have before them is an agreement placing a burthen on the city to benefit one person to the injury of another.

W. J. MACDONALD,
Trustee Reid's Estate.

N. B.—Since writing the above I have read Mr. Jones' and Mr. Gray's letters, and in my opinion they do not touch the real question at issue at all which is not so much one of frontage as of a onesided agreement which confers on Mr. Yates special benefits and privileges at the public expense. There is no trouble about getting a good enough landing anywhere; but let the council be allowed to arrange it to suit the people and not Mr. Yates.

W. J. MACDONALD.

The Public Landing—Another Letter from Coun. Mansell.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST:—Sir,—In reference to Mr. Jones' communication in your issue of the 23rd inst. I wish to state for the information of the public that when the question of exchange of landing was before the Council, I took considerable pains to ascertain which was the most suitable place for a landing, and Mr. Jones waf one of the persons whom I consulted on the matter. I met him on Wharf street and showed him our landing and requested him to give me his opinion on the exchange. He replied that our city landing was worth two of Mr. Yates' and that it would be a mistake to make the exchange. Mr. Jones afterwards called on Councillor McLean and made the same statement to him; but I am not able to state what influence was brought to bear to alter his opinion when he was before the committee. Mr. Gray has shown myself and others a letter purporting to be from Mr. Yates in which Mr. Yates wishes Mr. Gray not to take any further action in the matter. On the face of these instructions Mr. G. is using every exertion to gain the exchange by misrepresentation, and at the last moment when he finds his case hopeless he comes forward with new propositions. People are not so simple as to believe that all of Mr. Gray's exertions are made for no purpose and against the wishes of Mr. Yates. If the proposed exchange is made the city will be making Messrs. Yates & Co. a present of $8000, and why should we be so liberal toward such a man as Mr. Yates, who lives in other lands and draws the life-blood from the country that gives him bread? If the city wants to dispose of the landing, which is valued at $15,000 let the city sell it and use the money for sewerage purposes.

GEO. MANSELL.
Victoria, B. C., Oct. 23rd.

Yates' Rookories.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST:—Sir, — Are these unsightly wooden shanties to be pulled down? Are we to have stone and brick buildings put up in their place?

It seems that we have croaking ravens amongst us who go about with their eternal Ca! Ca! Ca! trying to prevent these rookeries being pulled down.

These ravens are doing all they can to keep back city improvements.

Mr. Yates has lots of capital and is prepared to put up new buildings if the public landing transfer is made.

Give the man a chance to spend his money!!

Coin is too scarce these times to throw such a show away!

The city is getting the best of the bargain, anyhow! 35 feet beats 16 feet all the time!

What on earth does it matter if Yates' property is improved or not by the transfer, as long as the city makes a good thing out of it?

He deserves to get his property improved when he is prepared to spend his thousands of dollars in the place as soon as the transfer is made.

He means business for he doesn't ask the exchange until his buildings are put up. So if the vote goes for the exchange we are sure to have the money spent right away.

Those who are working against the transfer are not the friends of the workingman.

WORKINGMAN.

Calculation!

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST: Sir—A "Citizen" in yesterday's Standard asks why should the corporation agree to grant to Mr. Yates a piece of city property worth about $12,500?

Now all the city have to give is 16 feet. They are to get 35 feet in exchange. Therefore, if 16 feet is worth $12,500 then 35 feet is worth $26,250. The net gain to the city on this transaction is thus, by "Citizen's" calculation, the difference, namely, $13,750.

Let the Standard's "Citizen" give a few more such arguments. They help the transfer! There's money in it—for the city.

An emigrant and his family located in Brantford a few days ago and the husband obtained employment with a coal dealer. Last week one of his children died from croup without medical attendance until the sufferer was in the agonies of death. The unfortunate little one was devoid of all covering, except that which the mother afforded from her own scanty apparel, and when dead there was not a thing in the house that could be used to lay her out for burial. It is said the father has plenty of money, but he is a miser, and while he hoards his cash his family suffer for even the necessaries of life.

Captain Andrew Bogie brought down from Cove Island, Lake Huron, five skulls out of six discovered in a cave on that island, The remains found are supposed to be those of some shipwrecked crew, and, to all appearances, had lain where found for twenty years.

A western paper says it is stated on reliable authority that Mr. A. Wigle looks upon the salary of $1,000 attached to the Windsor Postmastership as too paltry, and will not accept the office. None of the applicants expected the annual stipend would be less than $1,500.

Four colored men have made what is believed to be a "big" strike at the Montague gold field in Nova Scotia. Three months ago they took up four claims in the very centre of the gold district. They had found a number of boulders, and were convinced that a "rich lead" was in the immediate vicinity. For three months they searched diligently for that lead, and were about to give up the search in despair, when, just before quitting work on last Thursday night, they put in a blast, which, under some three feet of slate, turned out five hundred dollars worth of gold. The lead was thus discovered, and turned out to be fifteen inches wide, and at the present time gives promise of being one of the richest ever worked in this Province. The discovery of this valuable lead in a location where it was generally considered that the claims were exhausted, has caused considerable excitement among those interested in gold mining.

OTTAWA, Oct. 14.—Major-General Luard has issued a general order dismissing from the volunteer service a private for "answering" an officer while in the ranks, instead of obeying his order, and dismissing also the officer for subsequently using personal violence to the private and striking his name off the company roll.

LONDON, October 12.—The jury in the Biddulph murder case have, as was generally expected, disagreed. The trial was that of James Carroll for the murder of Mrs. Donnelly, and whether he or any other of the prisoners will be tried at the present assizes for any of the other murders will probably be determined today.

KINGSTON, Oct. 9.—This evening's News says: "There is a rumor afloat that Colonel Strange, of 'B.' Battery, has made up his mind to resign his present appointment and return to England in the course of the spring. This we believe has been brought about by the unsatisfactory treatment Colonel Strange meets with in his earnest endeavors to bring the artillery of the Dominion up to as high a standard and state of efficiency as his zealous labors justify him in his belief should be obtained.

Col. Shaw, of the Tenth Royals of this city, has tendered his resignation to the Militia Department.

MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—The trial of Jones and Trainer for the robbery of $15,000 from F. B. McNamee was commenced to-day in the assize court before the chief justice. The witnesses were W. H. Brinscombe, teller of the Bank of Montreal, who cashed the check for the money, but could not identify any portion of the bills which were recovered by the detectives; and W. G. Turner, who had charge of the money for Mr. McNamee. He identified the prisoners as parties he noticed loafing about the bank when he was getting the money.

The Dominion Parliament has been prorogued till November 23, and is not called then for the despatch of business.

The municipal assessors place the population of Ottawa at 24,025, as against 24,015 last year, being an increase of ten.

It is reported that Lieut.-General Smyth, who was Major General Luard's predecessor in command of the forces in Canada, has been put in command of Her Majesty's forces in South Africa.

It is now reported at Ottawa that the Pacific Railway syndicate is composed entirely of Canadian capitalists.

The Railway Syndicate.

The members of the railway syndicate were holding daily sittings at Ottawa at latest advices. The Globe's correspondent says: It is stated that a preliminary contracts for the construction of Pacific railway was signed in London, and that negotiations are now being prosecuted to determine the details of the final contract prior to its submittal to Parliament. Enough of the negotiations now in progress has leaked out to show the line of policy to be pursued. The alleged English capitalists are not present in person and have no representative at the meetings except Mr. S. J. C. Abbott, who was Sir Hugh Allan's right hand in 1873. The amount of the bonus is now said to be twenty-five million dollars, the amount of stock to be subscribed by the company being now fixed at fifty millions instead of a hundred millions. The government money bonus is placed at twenty millions of dollars. Bonds bearing four per cent. interest are to be issued, the whole being redeemable in a period extending over twenty-five years. The land bonus will be paid as the road is constructed and government guaranteed bonds issued in the same manner. These bonds will, of course, form the basis of the Syndicate's financial operations in Great Britain. The whole of the works now constructed or in courre of construction will, when completed, be placed under the Syndicate's control. Whether or not the company are to run the road for a longer period then ten years appears to be uncertain. That the face of the contract will provide for the construction of the unproductive sections north of Lake Superior and in British Columbia is undoubted.

The Toronto Mail says editorially of the above: The sensational and senseless paragraphs published from to-day in the Globe's Ottawa correspondence concerning the railway syndicate are a phase of journalism which has lost none of its mischief by becoming common and familiar to the public. We are in a position to state that there is no truth whatever in them from first to last, neither as regards the sums mentioned, the surveys, the contracts, or the proceedings of the Ministers or the syndicate. More than this it is almost needless for us to say. The statement with reference to Mr. Reekie, of Montreal, which appeared in the Globe yesterday, is wholly untrue, and without the slightest foundation. So also is the statement that the Premier is sending round the country for Canadian capitalists to cajole them into taking a share of the bargain. There is not the shadow of a foundation for this.

THOSE desiring a Good Meal for 25 cts. would do well by calling at the Government Street Coffee House. Try it and convince yourselves. *

SPALLMACHEEN.

Serious Accident to a Worthy Settler—His Life Saved by Amateur Surgeons—Crop Prospects.

A serious accident occurred here last Monday. Mr. Herman Wichers, a large farmer in the valley, was oiling his thrashing machine when he got his right arm caught in the cogs and cut half off half way between the elbow and wrist. The rest of the arm was fearfully lacerated and the bone broken above the elbow. There being no surgeon nearer than 250 miles and amputation being necessary Mr. Robert Lambly and Mr. Seydell undertook the operation and with no better instruments than pocket knives and a meat saw they took up the arteries and amputated the limb near the shoulder. I believe not more than two ounces of blood were lost during the operation. The nerve and skill displayed by the amatour surgeons is worthy of all praise as there can be no doubt but for their courage in undertaking the difficult operation Mr. Wichers would have lost his life.

The grain crop is safely harvested; the yield per acre will be below the average. There was not so large an acreage sown this year as last as many of the farmers are of opinion that it is poor policy to exhaust the land by cropping at the present unremunerative prices. We have had a wet harvest and some of the grain has suffered in consequence.

I think there will not be a large amount of grain raised for sale next year as the farmers are discussing the advisability of of going more extensively into hog raising, it being far more remunerative than shipping grain.—Correspondence, Oct. 14.

The Island Railway.

The Nanaimo Free Press comes out nobly in support of the Island Railway question. It says "the withdrawal of the railway belt from settlement has marred the prosperity of the insular portion of the Western Province, besides entailing heavy loss on those who invested their capital on the anticipation that the lands would be settled upon and the railway constructed. Under these adverse circumstances the inhabitants of Vancouver's Isle are entitled to material compensation at the hands of the Federal authorities. While the Dominion are urged to construct the Nanaimo-Esquimalt Railway and throw open the land to settlement and purchase, the fact of compensation for past delays and losses should not be lost sight of. Our neighbors at the other end of the line are talking of holding public meetings to bring the question of the Island Railway prominently forward and to strengthen the hands of the members at Ottawa. Nanaimo would do well to follow suit and do likewise."

SCHOOL TAX.—Acting on the advice of counsel the railway contractors were up before Mr. Justice Deighton on Monday last for refusing to pay their tax. The case having been decided against them and a fine of ten dollars imposed, appeal was made to the Supreme Court in order to make a test of it.—N. W. Herald.

NANAIMO.—The steamship Victoria is taking in coal at the V. C. Co.'s shutes. ....The ship Gatherer sailed from Astoria on the 8th, the bark Cassandra Adams from San Francisco on the 17th inst. and the bark Sumatra on the 19th inst. all for Wellington coal....The last of the steel rails has left Nanaimo for Yale.

CITY LANDING.—Legal opinion confirms that Mr. Yates is legally bound to the action of Mr. Gray in doing away with any objectionable stipulations in the original agreement. See our advertising columns.

Municipal Police Court.

[Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.]

SATURDAY, Oct. 23.

Edward Sack, on remand charged with receiving a pair of gum boots, stolen from the cargo of the steamer Grappler, well knowing the same to have been stolen.

The prisoner, who was undefended, pleaded "not guilty."

The evidence adduced went to show that on the 9th ult. a case containing gum boots was shipped from this port on board the steamer Grappler to Messrs. Callbreath, Grant and Cook of Cassiar; on the 15th ult., it was discovered that two pairs of the boots had been extracted from the case, which had been broken open. The prisoner was subsequently arrested and a pair of the missing boots found at the foot of his bed.

His Honor considered that the case was one for a jury and committed the prisoner for trial.

Geo. Wilson was then charged with stealing the above mentioned property. The prisoner was defended by Mr. H. C. Courtney and after hearing the evidence his honor said that he did not think a jury would convict on it and directed that the prisoner be discharged from custody.

The Steamer Hylton Castle Successfully Floated.

The steamer Hylton Castle, which went ashore near Albert Head on Wednesday night, floated off the rocks yesterday morning and proceeded under steam to a position of safety in Esquimalt harbor, pilot Rodgers being in command. A gang of men continued to discharge cargo during Friday night and the midship compartments are now half empty. At 9 o'clock the vessel being clear of the rocks she was put under steam and preparations were at once made to place a sail under her bows. At 10 o'clock this task was successfully accomplished and she was then headed for Esquimalt harbor. The wrecking pumps were started and the depth of water in the fore compartment reduced four inches. The steamer Woodside ran alongside and offered assistance; but her services were not required and eventually the disabled steamship was brought to an anchorage off Rosebank. The remainder of her cargo will be discharged and the damage she has sustained temporarily repaired. Yesterday afternoon the steamer went alongside the Hudson Bay Co.'s wharf at Esquimalt where she is now moored. A further survey was held on her and it was decided that an effort be made to effect the necessary patching without beaching the vessel.

The Fire at Quesnelforks.

This fire appears to have been more serious than was at first supposed. The whole town was destroyed with the exception of the government agent's office, which was saved through Mr. M. Barry and a Chinaman's exertions. The fire broke out at 2 o'clock on the morning of the 14th inst. in an unoccupied house belonging to Kwong Lee & Co. and swept with inconceivable rapidity through the settlement, licking up everything inflammable with the exception above mentioned. The streets will be wider in the new town with sufficient space between the buildings. Kwong Lee lost $5,000; He Tie $5,000; M. Barry $3,000. Great praise is due to Mr. Barry, who had been left in charge by the government agent, absent on official business. Mr. Barry was badly burned on the arm and hand.

Arrival of the Dakota.

The Pacific Coast Mail Steamship Company's steamer Dakota, Capt. Morse, sailed from San Francisco for Victoria at 2.27 p. m. on the 20th inst. and arrived at Esquimalt at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She had light east and southeast winds with thick weather the entire passage. On the 22nd at 3 p. m. she passed a steamer bound south. The Dakota brings 40 passengers for Victoria, 8 for Port Townsend, 35 for Seattle, 24 for Tacoma. For Victoria she brings 450 tons of freight and 50 bags of mail; for Port Townsend 45 tons of freight for Seattle, 175 tons, for Tacoma 65 tons and for Olympia 50 tons —making 765 tons altogether. At 2.30 o'clock this afternoon on the top of high water the Dakota, a vessel of 2000 tons burthen, will come alongside Welch, Rithet & Co.'s wharf to discharge cargo.

THE POSTOFFICE FRONT.—The work goes bravely on in spite of the notice of the Mayor and Council. The Dominion Government, we hear, not only claim four feet of the present line of Government street, but propose to build porticos over each entrance to the building supported by heavy columns resting on the sidewalk, which will be thrown four feet beyond the present sidewalk into the street, which will, in its turn, be four feet narrower than until recently it was supposed to be. We hear further that the owner of a lot on the same block contemplates erecting a brick building and that he intends to adopt the new line and build four feet upon the sidewalk.

THE "TSU-KU-BA."—The latest news from the Japanese corvette Tsu-ku-ba, which visited this port in July, announces the vessel as nearing home, with all on board well. After leaving San Francisco a short stay was made at Honolulu, whence she proceeded homeward. The young men on the training ship have already spent five years in college and after their year's voyage and return home will enter upon one more and final year of college work, to which they will bring minds refreshed and invigorated by their year of sea and foreign travel.

THE steamer Enterprise from New Westminster and the steamer Cariboo-Fly from Nanaimo arrived here yesterday afternoon with the mails and passengers and small quantities of freight.

COAL.—The schooner load of coal exsteamship Hylton Castle, sold at public auction yesterday, was purchased by Messrs. Welch, Rithet & Co. at $4.50 per ton.

NO ALARM.—The bell in the Tiger Engine Co.'s new house will be tested by Chief Engineer Phillips punctually at noon to-morrow. The test must not be mistaken for an alarm.

THE O. S. N. Co. of Portland have paid for $700,000 for the Seattle coal mines.

REMOVED.—The Inland Sentinel after a brave struggle at Emory has been removed to Yale.

THE steamer Grappler sails at daylight this morning for Fort Wrangel and way ports.

THE U. S. revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott leaves for the straits this morning.

Archdeacon Wright on Church of England Missions.

The Hampshire Telegraph and Chronicle of late date contains the report of a sermon preached by Venerable Archdeacon Wright at the Royal Garrison Church at Portsmouth. The church was crowded in every part. The Archdeacon selected for his text Deut. iv., 6th verse, "Keep, therefore, and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people." After reviewing mission work in other parts of the globe the venerable gentleman referred to British Columbia. That colony, he said, had spiritually gone through great trials and vicissitudes. Never did a mission go forth under more favorable circumstances and for a season great blessings seemed to attend it. Alas! its early monetary resources were its dangers, and he was afraid that too much reliance had been placed upon money and dignity and too little upon prayer and simplicity, upon unity of clergy and laity, upon wisdom in finance and holy, happy intercourse between all classes and colors of Christians. That mission had had at its head a zealous and earnest bishop whose ever desire had been the spiritual well-being of the colonist, but alas! strange combinations, political and social, had thwarted his efforts and sadly stayed church progress for a season. It boots not where the fault lay. One thing was certain from the first, even when the heaviest troubles came—and they had been heavy indeed—all had meant well. While then we would not picture a holy progress where such cannot honestly be set forth this we should do, we should as in duty bound help a colony in its spiritual blessings. But here it is only right that he should bear witness to the wonderful influence which our church has exercised upon the Indians in British Columbia. Of that influence we had full particulars in an interesting work by Mr. Halcombe "Stranger than Fiction" which tells of Duncan and Metlakahtla while in the pages of mission life he (the Archdeacon) had given cheerful descriptions of the Lytton mission among the Thompson Indians. On one occasion he joined in examining a large number for confirmation and holy baptism and was perfectly astonished at their understanding and answers, and then it was the Blessed Sacrament was administered to 110 cleanly, well clothed, thoughtful and devout red men, the chiefs of whom were many of them not long ago murderers, adulterers, gamblers and such like, but are now humble followers of Christ, seated clothed in their right mind. The preacher went on to describe the work being carried on at East Saanich and Esquimalt, the two branches of the mission to which the offertory was to be devoted, and concluded his discourse by a powerful appeal for assistance.

The Mainland.

The Herald says the boilers of the river steamers became so foul by reason of the unusual quantity of dirt in the water, occasioned by the Thompson river slide, that they had all to be cleaned out last trip.....Much complaint is made of want of suitable postal facilities at North Arm. Letters are carried by anybody and everybody and vexatious delays frequently result.....A hundred head of cattle have gone into winter quarters at Ladner's Landing.....Both saw mills at Burrard Inlet are running full time. There are four vessels at Moodyville—the H. Buck, the Oswingo, the Cashmere, and the Fleetwing, several of which will carry away large cargoes of lumber. No vessels at present at Hastings, but several are expected soon and their cargoes are being got ready. ...Richmond Municipality, little more than a year old, is now building a Town Hall. New Westminster, in the enjoyment of Municipal institutions for 20 years, hasn't a Town Hall yet..... To-day the Rev. Mr. Dunn of Langley leaves for Comox, having arranged an exchange for two or three months with the Rev. Mr. McElmon, who is expected over next week.....North Arm road is in an almost impassable condition.....The Guardian says: A Chillian who had been working at Bridge's camp went over to Granville on Sunday night last, and returning to camp, died immediately after his removal from the canoe. It was at first supposed that he had been drinking at Granville and might have absorbed an overdose, but this was proved by the Indians who accompanied him, not to have been the case. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from heart disease.....We learn from Capt. Dexter that the dredger will complete her labors for the season at the end of next month. ....Mr. Robt. Law has just imported and fitted up in his foundry a splendid new lathe, with all the modern improvements.

THE Court of Assize meets at Lytton to-morrow and at Yale on Friday next.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

A Glance at the Personnel of the Upper Chamber.

An American correspondent writes:—The most important bill before the House this day was one on second reading originally introduced by Lord Nelson in reference to the better educational facilities which should, in the opinion of the worthy lord, be offered by Government to females of the middle classes. A worthy subject, but the present Earl Nelson is by no means as eloquent a speaker as his grandfather was a valiant fighter, and so I fell to musing over the lives and peculiarities of some of the well-known men in the body below me. On the foremost seat of the Government side sat the Duke of Argyll, or, as he is known in the House, Baron Sunbridge. Small in stature and attired in a plain suit of grey, he looked more a shop-keeper than a Scottish peer. Immediately back of the Duke yonder sits the Earl of Lonsdale, the young peer who "moved the Queen's speech" at the opening of Parliament last spring—an honour usually accorded by courtesy to a new member. By his side is Baron Winmarleigh, an old and palsy-stricken man whom Beaconsfield created a peer but six years since. Next him is Earl Granville, a Government member, and, physically, as fine looking as any man I ever saw. Observe with what delicateness his hands and features are formed, and yet to what grand proportions his form approaches now that he is rising in his place to speak. And his voice and language. Mark with what exactness the one is inflected, and in what wealth of ideas and correctness the other abounds. Surely it were not difficult to believe that this man is of noble blood. Sitting over there in the corner, reading, is the Duke of Devonshire. He is a great scholar, is Chancellor of Oxford, but seldom takes any part in a House debate. One would suppose he would prefer the gayety of Hyde Park or the quiet of his own beloved "Chatsworth," to these dull legislative halls. But he takes great interest in his gifted son, the Marquis of Hartington, and loves therefore to linger here. You wonder who that nervous old man is walking about and talking with so many different members, both Government and Opposition. He is a queer one. His name is Robert Lowe, and gossip says he was sent to this House to get rid of him, as he was too troublesome in the body at the other end of the palace. Verily some are born to greatness, while others have it trust upon them. That foppish-looking little fellow with whom he is now talking is Montague Corry, that was; he no longer bears so humble a name, however. He had the good fortune to be Disraeli's private secretary, and "copied all the letters in a hand so free," that that astute gentleman made him a peer. It seems to make a difference in the world whose private secretary one is. This eloquent and logical speaker on the left, who is now replying to Earl Spencer, is the Duke of Richmond-Gordon, great personal friend of the Prince of Wales, one of the foremost men in the realm in a social point of view, and whose peerage dates from the time of Charles II. He is one of the most honourable Knights of the Garter, and was Lord President in Beaconsfield's late Ministry. Earl Spencer, the man to whom the duke is replying, is that small man with full sandy beard on the Government side near the Woolsack. He looks like a veritable Irishman, but he is not. He is a great favourite with the Queen, and was out at Windsor the other day to dine with her. He is only a subordinate in Mr. Gladstone's Ministry, but he gets honours in that quarter that his chief cannot. However, Americans think no less of the learned "chief" on that account. Observe that dark-complexioned, faultlessly attired young man sitting on the steps of the throne yonder. He is Viscount Trafalgar, great-grandson of the man whose monument adorns Trafalgar Square, and whose effigies are legion throughout the Kingdom. Indeed, I heard a "Young American" declare one day on a Rhine steamer to a Church of England clergyman with whom he was in conversation that "Nelson, Wellington, and twenty-shilling sovereigns, formed the English Trinity." The members' sons are allowed to come upon the floor of the House and occupy the space in front of the throne, but never to sit upon any of the benches during a session. That middle-aged man now in earnest conversation with the Duke of Buccleuch is Lord Churchill, Duke of Marlborough, who has managed to eke out an existence during the last few years on a pittance of $100,000 a year, as Lord-Lieutenant of famine-stricken Ireland. He seldom comes to a sitting of the House, but is evidently here to-day by way of diversion. His peerage dates from 1702, and he owes his fortune and ancient lineage to the whim of Queen Anne, whose first work at making a Duke was the bestowing of that honour upon John Churchill, the present Marlborough's ancestor in the sixth generation back.

Lord Leigh, the generous-hearted owner of Stoneleigh Abbey, near Kenilworth, has just finished speaking, and then there is a slight rustle caused by the entrance of a member from the Prince's chamber. The new comer advances to a front bench on the left with a dramatic bearing and sits down with an air of impatient restraint. He is of slender build, of medium height, attired in faultless broadcloth, and his shoulders are slightly bent forward as though bearing up with difficulty the small but restless head. The swarthy skin, the full dark eyes, and those jet-black locks of hair which fall in would be curls over his forehead and collar, plainly indicate his Jewish origin. It is Lord Beaconsfield. Seldom, since the earl retired from the premiership, does he come into parliament; but when he does it is with the same dramatic air that he bears to-day. Never quite at his ease, he nervously casts his keen eyes about the room, recognizing no one in particular but every one in a general way, and brings them back again with a look of confidence to the gold-colored rose in the carpet—for Beaconsfield is popular here in the city of London, and he is well aware of it. That man at the desk on the extreme left is his brother. His full brother, and yet mark the difference between them. The one, plain Ralph Disraeli, a clerk, wearing the "Index" wig, and receiving therefor a salary of eighteen hundred pounds a year; the other a Knight of the Garter, a peer of the realm, an ex-premier, and one of the foremost men of his time!

The Difference.

The good wife rose from her bed one morn,
And thought with a nervous dread
Of the pile of clothes to be washed, and more
Than a dozen mouths to feed.
Of the meals to get for the man in the field,
And the children to fix away;
Those weary cows, and the cream to churn—
And all to be done in a day.

It had rained through the night, and all the wood
Was as wet as wood could be;
She had meat, and pudding and bread to bake,
And a loaf of cake for tea;
And the day was hot, and her aching head
Throbbed wearily as she said:
"If girls but knew what good wives know,
They would be in no haste to wed."

"Jennie, what do you think I told Bob Brown?"
Called her husband from the door
As he entered the house at dinner time,
And his shadow fell on the floor.
"It was this," he said, and coming near,
He laughed; and stooping down,
Kissed her cheek—"'Twas this—that you were the best
And the dearest wife in town."

The farmer went back to the field, and the wife
In a happy and absent way,
Sang snatches of tender, old-fashioned songs,
Not sung for many a day.
And the pain in her head was gone, and the clothes
Were as white as the foam of the sea;
Her bread it was light and her butter sweet,
And as golden as butter could be.

"Mother!" the children all cried in a breath,
"Tom Woods ran away to sea;
Poor Tom—he often wished that he had
As happy a home as we."
O'er the night came down and the good wife smiled
To herself as she softly said:
"'Tis so sweet to labor for those we love,
It's no wonder that young girls wed."

Heaven bless the wives! they fill the hives
With little bees and honey;
They sooth life's shocks, and mend the socks
But don't they spend the money!
And quite right, too, as they spend it to good advantage at the WHITE HOUSE. *
